- Extract the zip file RXM180079_cs6360.zip to get all the source files.
- Follow the steps based on readme file
- After running the execution file, a menu containing add, view,search,delete options.
- When we click add button, it will ask for firstname, middle name, last name, address details, phone details and date details. It will enter into the contact database.
- When we click View button, it will display entire person details and two buttons UPDATE, DELETE at the top.
- By clicking delete, it will ask for the row to update, by entering it will delete the row details displayed on the screen.
- By clicking Update, it will ask for the row to update, and after entering the fields, a screen will prompt by displaying person empty field details which are to be entered.
- When we click search button, a search field will be prompt. You can search for a contact based on its firstname, middle name, last name, address, city, zip, phone number .The returned result will display information like first name, middle name and last name.
- When we click Modify option, a canvas will display with update and delete options. You can update, delete details by entering contact_id.